

Delaware Bankers Association

Regulation II, Debit Card Interchange Fees and Routing (Docket No. R-1404)

On March 4, 2011, members of the Delaware Bankers Association met with Governor Duke to discuss the Board's proposed rulemaking on debit card interchange fees and routing. Some association members expressed concerns that the proposed rule would result in higher operating costs for banks, which would likely be passed on to consumers.